

Recruitment Pack Operations Manager

Vicar's Introduction

We're delighted that you're reading the recruitment pack for the Operations Manager position at St John's Church. We hope that as you read the document, you'll catch a sense of the vision and purpose of the church, some understanding of where we are in our story, and an idea of what we're looking for as we recruit a new member of our staff leadership team. We hope that you will be excited by both the challenges, but also the opportunities afforded by the role, and that as you pray about whether God is calling you to apply, you will discern his call in your life. We've been praying already for several months for whoever the Lord is calling to join us – and that could be you!

Revd Graham Hunter
Vicar

Vision & Purpose

The vision of St John's Church is to be 'a beacon of hope for Hoxton'.

Our aim is that women, men and children of all ages, every ethnicity, every nationality and cultural background might experience what it means to be 'reconciled to God in Christ' (2 Cor. 5:19).

Everything we do as a church is to this end, and is expressed in our mission statement:

Worship God | Make Disciples | Share Jesus | Transform Hoxton

Mission

Our approach to mission can be summarised by four activity headings: Worship God | Make Disciples | Share Jesus | Transform Hoxton. We aim to ensure that all of our activities and resources are aligned with enabling these core priorities.

Our strategic plan for this mission is expressed in our Mission Action Plan 2016-2021 in which we have articulated ambitious goals in relation to congregational growth and site redevelopment. We recognise that the work required to make the vision a reality will be hard and costly – and we seek to recruit people to our team who thrive in exciting and challenging environments where mission and ministry can be reimaged and developed in innovative ways.

Values

Rooted

- We are confidently Christian: focused on prayer and worship, we are attentive to the voice of God in Scripture and work within the inherited structures of the Church of England.
- We are committed to loving and serving Hoxton and being ambassadors of the kingdom of God.
- We are rooted in our relationships to the wider church: within our parish and diocese but also with Christians from other traditions. We will honour their gifts, and humbly seek to work and learn together.

Relational

- We are committed to sharing life with all its ups and downs – rejoicing together and weeping together.
- We want fun, food and friendship to be hallmarks of our church, and hospitality a fundamental part of our corporate life.
- We want to embrace the great diversity of people in our neighbourhood.

Responsive

- We're responsive to the changing shape of our church and neighbourhood, and we continually adapt our mission and ministry to reflect the context. We're happy to experiment creatively, and we recognise that fruitfulness does not always mean short-term visible outcomes.
- We want to ensure our compassionate ministry addresses real local needs.
- We want our church ministries to express the variety of our members' gifts and vocations – not fit people into a predetermined model.

Risk-Taking

- We trust in a God who is able to do 'immeasurably more' than we can ask or imagine – this has been our experience over the past years.
- We will be attentive to the voice of the Spirit, and willing to step out in faith
- We will not shy away from making changes if we believe that God is calling us into something new.

Workplace Culture

We are developing a professional while also relational working environment. We expect ministry leaders – whether paid staff or volunteers – to lead others by example. We expect our team to work diligently, efficiently and attentively in their areas of responsibility. We expect that team members will honour their commitments to other members of the ministry team as well as members of the wider church by behaving in accordance with our code of conduct.

We are a developing and growing church, and we foster an entrepreneurial approach to ministry. Although we plan our work carefully, we also experiment and evaluate. We care about measuring outcomes and fruitfulness, but we're more concerned with ensuring that our inputs are carefully considered and applied. We commend effort more than attainment. But we also use quarterly and annual work plans as well as 'Key Performance Indicators' to help direct and evaluate our work.

L-O-R-D

'Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters... It is the Lord Christ you are serving' (Colossians 3:23-24)

All our work in mission and ministry falls into four main categories. It's not an exhaustive list of duties, but it should remind you of different areas of your work – even those you may not instinctively warm to! It should help you keep a balance in your work between the practical and administrative side of ministry and the inter-personal and up-front aspect of ministry.

L ead Demonstrate Godly character, kingdom values and reflect Christ's love. Show 'best-practice' in your area of ministry that others may observe and imitate in personal interactions, teaching, planning, or pastoral care.	O rganise Take responsibility for the practical administration of your programme area. Ensure good communication and preparation enables effective ministry.
R esource Assess the material, financial, practical and human resources needed for the ministry to flourish and set about attaining them.	D evelop Always look to train others in your area of ministry, passing on to future leaders the experience you have gained. Keep on learning: develop yourself and others.
